AFFIDAVIT OF NEAL TURNER

The undersigned, Neal Turner, having been duly sworn for his Affidavit states:

1. That my name is Neal Turner and I am the brother of Tab Turner.
2. That during February of 2003, I attended a fundraiser for Senator John Edwards during his presidential campaign.
3. The location of the fundraiser, which I attended, was at the home of Ray Baxter in Benton, Arkansas. I have no specific recollection of how the $2,000 contribution to the Edwards Campaign Committee was made, however, my brother, Tab Turner, indicated to me that he would make the contribution on my behalf, and credit it against the amount he owed me for a boat which I transferred to him.
4. I do not specifically remember signing a donor card, however, it is likely that I did.
5. I do not remember having any interaction with any Edwards Campaign Committee personnel, and in particular, I have no knowledge of any role in the campaign fundraiser by Jennifer Kinder or Franklin Hall or any other Edwards Committee staff personnel. I do not remember meeting any Edwards campaign staff at the fundraiser.
